...a winning combination providing you access to Investment Services and Financial Planning.

KEITH WOOD, FINANCIAL ADVISOR

With over 14 years of financial services experience, Keith Wood joined Raymond James Financial Advisor based in Orlando, covering the entire Central Florida footprint. After a highly decorated four-year active duty tour in the U.S. Army, Keith earned a Bachelor's Degree in Accounting from University of Phoenix. An Orlando resident, Keith is committed to supporting the local community through his many volunteer efforts.

What it comes to planning for the future, Keith focuses determining income strategies to help you reach your needs and goals—whether you hope to earn dividends through ownership of common stocks or interest payments from fixed income securities bonds. He also believes in fully explaining the process of investment planning and whether what you have planned matches your future expectations.

I am dedicated to helping individuals and corporations meet their financial needs by developing investment plans around their long-term goals and risk tolerance. My extensive experience—throughout major shifts in the markets—enables me to assist clients in structuring portfolios to address their specific financial goals.
